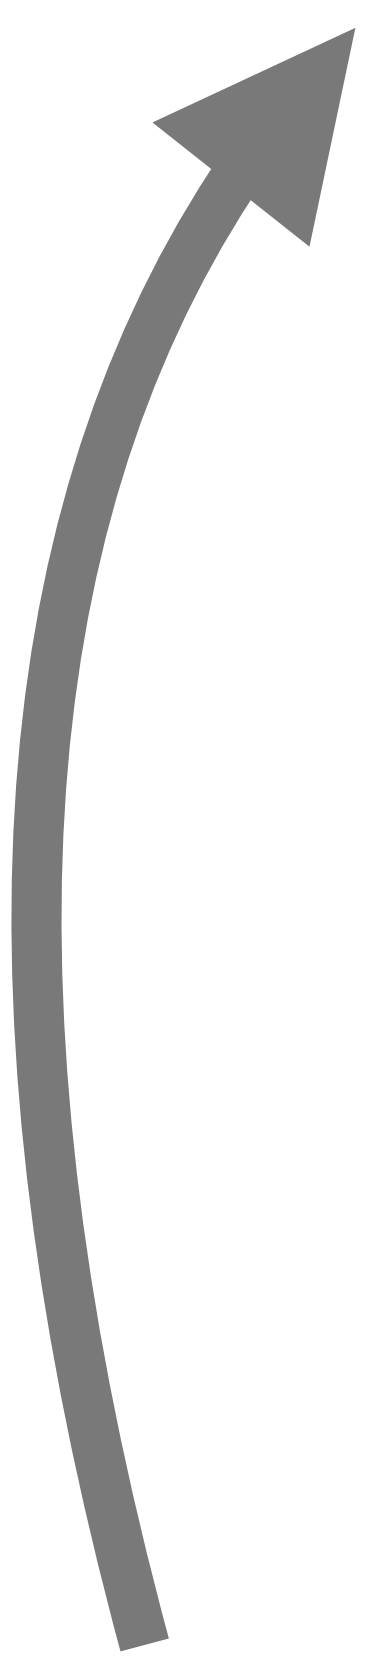
5. God knowing that we will perform some action necessitates that we will perform that action.

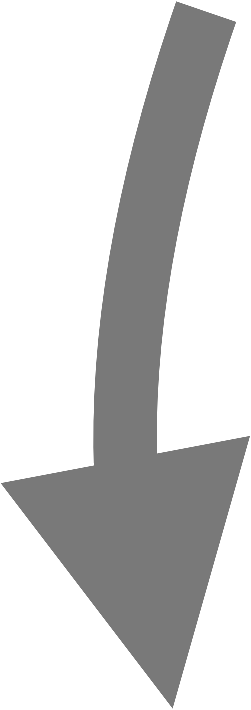
4. If we have no choice about some facts, and those facts necessitate X, we have no choice about X.

1. We have no choice about past facts.

2. In the past, God had foreknowledge of our future actions.

3. We have no choice about God's knowing that in the future I will perform a certain action. (1,2)





But then it seems to follow that:

C. We have no choice about whether we will perform our future actions.
