

Let's start with an example which seems to show that we should modify our views in response to certain kinds of disagreement.

The horse race

Imagine that you are at a horse track with a friend. Two horses, A and B, are competing for the lead down the stretch. At the finish, it is extremely close, but it looks to you that horse A won. You are highly confident that you are correct.

Your friend then turns to you and says
“I can’t believe that B won.”

Should you now be less confident in your initial judgement?
